My name is Skyler Martin. I have been playing music for about six years. I love to write my own songs and play worship music.

I am giving guitar lessons to anyone interested for the price of 20 dollars a lesson. One lesson is an hour long and I have two different teaching styles that you can choose from.

I am giving drum lessons for the same price.

My hours are very flexible and I can give lessons wherever is good for you.

Thank you!
